Consent To Treat

I hereby authorize the providers of Lane County Health & Human Services to provide such health services, including medical, mental health, surgery, regular or emergency services, as determined to be in the best interest of myself, my child or legal charge, if I am a parent or legal guardian.

I understand that I have the right to be informed about specific services and procedures, including information about risks, benefits, and alternatives to each service proposed for my services. I understand that my participation in services is voluntary, I have the right to refuse any particular service, and I may withdraw from all services at any time. I understand that I have the right to ask questions about any service provided at any time. If I have concerns, I have the right to talk to a Program Supervisor and/or file a complaint or grievance which will be responded to promptly and respectfully.

I understand that there are several exceptions to the Individual/Provider privilege. For example, under Oregon Law, Lane County Health & Human Services must report:

- a. child abuse
- b. elder abuse
- c. abuse of mentally ill persons or developmentally disabled persons
- d. when required by a court order
- e. harm or potential harm to self or others

This authorization shall continue and be in full force and effect until revoked in writing.

Dear Parents / Legal Guardians,

Community Health Centers of Lane County developed a form for parents/legal guardians in the event you need to send your child to a medical appointment with someone other than their parent or legal guardian (i.e. Step Parent, Grandparent, Family member, Friend of the family, etc.)

Please review and fill out this "Proxy Decision Maker for Minor Children" for any future appointments your child will attend with someone other than their parent or legal guardian. One form is needed for each child. This form will remain on file until it is revoked by parent/legal guardian signature.

Sincerely,

Community Health Centers of Lane County

ESPAÑOL:

Estimados Padres o Tutores,

Community Health Centers del Condado de Lane tiene un formulario para padres/tutores en el evento de que necesite enviar a su niño a una cita médica con alguien que no sea su padre o tutor legal (por ejemplo: padrastros, abuelos, miembro de la familia, amistad de la familia, etc.)

Por favor lea y llene el formulario "Apoderado para un menor de edad" para cualquier cita futura que su hija tenga a la que vaya con otra persona que no sea su padre, madre o tutor legal. Un formulario es necesario para cada niño. Este formulario permanecerá en su expediente hasta que sea revocado con la firma de su padre, madre o tutor legal.

Atentamente,

Community Health Centers del Condado de Lane

YOUR TEAM
for better health

Permission to Verbally Discuss Protected Health Information with Family Members and Friends

We have established a process that allows you to tell us who we may talk with about your healthcare. This includes appointments and scheduling information, test results, treatment information and billing information.

How can I give others permission to get verbal information about me?

Complete the Permission to Verbally Discuss Protected Health Information form on the reverse of this page to let us know to whom we may speak about your information. Check the appropriate boxes to indicate what information we may discuss.

Does this mean that you will not speak to anyone I haven't specifically named on the form?

No. If permitted by law, the Community Health Centers of Lane County may speak to other individuals involved in your care (or payment for that care).

How is the information on the form used?

Anytime your designated person calls or makes a request on your behalf, we will verify the individual has your permission to receive the information and then we will share the information.

What are some examples of when this might be useful?

- If a patient wants to share information with a spouse or significant other
- If an elderly parent wants an adult child to help understand medical treatment instructions
- If an adult child is helping with billing questions
- If a friend is helping a patient with health issues
- If a college student wants information shared with a parent
- If an adult child calls to find out his/her parent's appointment time

What if I change my mind?

You can change or revoke (stop) this process at any time by completing a form available at our clinic locations.

What happens if I don't complete this form?

We will continue to protect your private information as required by law.

Can the person I designate also get copies of my medical records?

No, they can only receive verbal information. To get copies of medical records, complete a separate Authorization form available by contacting your primary clinic or calling our clinic for further information at 541-682-3550.

LANE COUNTY HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES
BEHAVIORAL HEALTH AND
COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTERS OF LANE COUNTY
NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Effective Date: February 24, 2023

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.
PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Lane County Health & Human Services (HHS) provides many types of services, such as public health, mental health, and drug and alcohol services. HHS staff must collect information about you to provide these services. HHS knows that information we collect about you and your health is private. HHS is required to protect this information by Federal and State law. We call this information “protected health information (PHI).”

The Notice of Privacy Practices will tell you how HHS may use or disclose information about you. Not all situations will be described. HHS is required to give you a notice of our privacy practices about the information we collect and keep about you. HHS is required to follow the terms of the notice currently in effect.

HHS May Use and Disclose Information Without Your Authorization

- For Treatment. HHS may use or disclose information with health care providers who are involved in your health care. For example, information may be shared to create and carry out a plan for your treatment. There are exceptions to this for some A&D, Mental Health, and HIV services. Some of your information may be exchanged electronically via a Health Information Exchange (HIE). If you do not want your information included in the HIE you may opt-out of this by contacting Lane County Behavioral Health or the Community Health Centers of Lane County
- For Payment. HHS may use or disclose information to get payment or to pay for the health care services you receive. For example, HHS may provide PHI to bill your health plan for health care provided to you.
- For Health Care Operations. HHS may use or disclose information in order to manage its programs and activities. For example, HHS may use PHI to review the quality of services you receive.
- For Health Oversight Activities. HHS may use or disclose information during inspections or investigations of our services.
- As Required by Law and For Law Enforcement. HHS will use and disclose information when required or permitted by federal or state law or by a court order.
- For Abuse Reports and Investigations. HHS is required by law to receive and investigate reports of abuse.
- To Avoid Harm. HHS may disclose PHI to law enforcement in order to avoid a serious threat to the health and safety of a person or the public.

Uses and Disclosures in Special Situations

We may use or disclose your PHI in the situations described below unless you notify us in writing that you would like us not to. See the information below under “Your PHI Privacy Rights” for information about how to request limitations.

- Appointments and Other Health Information. HHS may send you reminders for medical care or checkups. HHS may send you information about other treatment or health services that may be of interest to you.
- For Public Health Activities. HHS is the public health agency that keeps and updates vital records, such as births and deaths, and tracks some diseases.
- For Government Programs. HHS may use and disclose information for public benefits under other government programs. For example, HHS may disclose information for the determination of Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits.
- For Research. HHS uses information for studies and to develop reports. These reports do not identify specific people.
- Individuals Involved in Your Care. Unless you object, HHS may disclose to a member of your family, relative or a friend or any other person you identify. If you are unable to agree to such a disclosure, such as with a medical emergency, we may disclose such information as necessary if we determine that it is in your best interest based on our professional judgement.

Other Uses and Disclosures Require Your Written Authorization

For other situations, HHS will ask for your written authorization before using or disclosing information. You may cancel this authorization at any time in writing. HHS cannot take back any uses or disclosures already made with your authorization.

- Other Laws Protect PHI. Many HHS programs have other laws for the use and disclosure of information about you. For example, you must give your written authorization for HHS to use and disclose your HIV or alcohol and drug treatment records.

Your PHI Privacy Rights

When information is maintained by HHS as a public health agency, the public health records are governed by other State and Federal laws and are not subject to the rights described below.

- Right to See and Get Copies of Your Records. In most cases, you have the right to look at or get copies of your records. You must make the request in writing. You may be charged a fee for the cost of copying your records.
- Right to Request a Correction or Update of Your Records. You may ask HHS to change or add missing information to your records if you think there is a mistake. You must make the request in writing, and provide a reason for your request.
- Right to Get a List of Disclosures. You have the right to ask HHS for a list of disclosures made after April 14, 2003. You must make the request in writing. This list will not include the times that information was disclosed for treatment, payment, or health care operations. The list will not include information provided directly to you or your family, or information that was sent with your authorization.
- Right to Request Limits on Uses or Disclosures of PHI. You have the right to ask that HHS limit how your information is used or disclosed. You must make the request in writing and tell HHS what information you want to limit and to whom you want the limits to apply. HHS is not required to agree to the restriction. You can request that the restrictions be terminated in writing or verbally.
- Right to Choose How We Communicate with You. You have the right to ask that HHS share information with you in a certain way or in a certain place. For example, you may ask HHS to send information to your work address instead of your home address. You must make this request in writing. You do not have to explain the basis for your request.
- Right to File a Complaint. You have the right to file a complaint if you do not agree with how HHS has used or disclosed information about you.
- Right to Get a Paper Copy of this Notice. You have the right to ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time.
- Right to be Notified of a Breach. You have the right to be notified if we (or a business associate) discover a breach of your unsecured health information.

How to contact HHS to Review, Correct, or Limit Your Protected Health Information (PHI)

You may contact your local HHS office or the HHS Privacy Officer at the address listed at the end of this notice to:

- Ask to look at or copy your records
- Ask to limit how information about you is used or disclosed
- Ask to cancel an authorization
- Ask to correct or change your records
- Ask for a list of the times HHS disclosed information about you

HHS may deny your request to look at, copy or change your records. If HHS denies your request, HHS will send you a letter that tells you why your request is being denied and how you can ask for a review of the denial. You will also receive information about how to file a complaint with HHS or with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights.

How to File a Complaint or Report a Problem

You may contact any of the people listed below if you want to file a complaint or to report a problem with how HHS has used or disclosed information about you. HHS cannot retaliate against you for filing a complaint, cooperating in an investigation, or refusing to agree to something that you believe to be unlawful.
