Executive Summary

The Restorative Services unit is tasked with providing diversion services for youth in the juvenile justice system. Juvenile Justice Specialists conduct assessments of youth referred for delinquency and manage the youth's progress through the completion of diversion agreements and programs. The Minor in Possession diversion program is housed in this unit, as well as the Springfield Restorative Justice program and all County peer courts. In addition, this unit houses a full-time Victim Advocate who provides victim services to all victims of Lane County juvenile offenders.

Service Descriptions
