Executive Summary

This program provides 16 beds of secure custody for youth who represent a risk to the community. General Fund, the Local Option Levy, and Juvenile Crime Prevention grant dollars fund the 16 beds. Detention is used to ensure community safety including pre-adjudicative youth, probation violations, and court ordered sanctions.

Service Descriptions

	Revenue	Expense Total	General Fund	FTE
Adopted Budget Total	$396,586	$1,601,941	$1,205,355	9.50

The General Fund, Local Option Levy, and Juvenile Crime Prevention grant funding provides 16 beds of secure custody. The funding pays for Juvenile Group Workers who provide 24/7 intake and detention services. Funds also pay for two supervisors and support staff. The 16 detention beds are used for highest risk youth. ORS requires juvenile departments to take charge of youth ordered into custody by the court and is referenced below. General fund pays for 1.0 FTE Detention Supervisors and 8.5 FTE Juvenile Groupworkers.

State/Federal Mandate

ORS 419A.059 and 419A.012(4) The juvenile director shall take charge of any youth offender before and after the hearing as directed by the court and the court shall designate the place where youth shall be held in detention.
