Executive Summary

Land and water search and rescue services throughout the county are the responsibility of the Sheriff's Office. The Search and Rescue Manager is supported by a Search and Rescue Coordinator, who provides SAR support and management functions during large scale or extended duration missions, or when the SAR Manager is unavailable. The Search and Rescue Program relies heavily upon volunteers which are also managed by the SAR Manager. A portion of the program is funded with Title III reimbursement.

Service Descriptions

	Revenue	Expense Total	General Fund	FTE
Adopted Budget Total	$151,000	$637,825	$486,825	2.00
Current Service Level	$151,000	$637,825	$486,825	2.00

The Search and Rescue program conducts field operations, training and management for approx. 200 volunteers representing thousands of hours of donated service annually. SAR provides state-required reporting functions and direct oversight of over 100 missions per year. A SAR Supervisor provides backup when the Coordinator is unavailable and also assists in SAR operations and volunteer training and supervision.
